Ρ

B. Display the following cognitive (thinking) skills, including the ability to:

19. Programme structures and requirements, levels, modules, credits and awards
The BSc Comparative Pathology degree is a one-year programme, in which each student completes two compulsory taught modules:
Principles of Pathology
Applications of Pathology
And a dedicated Comparative Pathology Research Project The Project runs throughout the Spring and Summer terms and the students must produce a research report of their project and an oral presentation of their findings.
For the purpose of Credit Transfer, the programme is valued at 120 Credits at Level 3.
20. Work Placement Requirements N/A
ASSESSMENT
See : BSc Bioveterinary Sciences, B

