

There is no charge if you are applying for recognition as an Associate Fellow or Fellow having successfully completed one of our accredited programmes

Is there another recognition route?

Applications through the recognition scheme are peer reviewed against agreed recognition criteria. You may apply for Associate, Fellow or Senior Fellow status if you:

teach and/or support learning (including foundation degrees etc) in a higher education institution and are able to present appropriate evidence teach and/or support learning at HE level and are able to present appropriate evidence, regardless of who your employer is.

I am currently a Fellow. How do I achieve Senior Fellow status?

You will need to provide evidence that you meet the following criteria:

- Lead colleagues by personal example
- Facilitate and influence networks of colleagues
- Impact positively beyond your institution, at national or international level, within your discipline or more generally
- Make a sustained contribution and positive impact to the student learning experience
- Champion learning and teaching in HE

The recognition fee for Senior Fellow status is £300 GBP (If applying as a member of RVC staff)

If I have any more queries, whom should I ask?

The HE Academy website contains answers to most questions. If you still have a query, then please contact the Staff Training and Development.
